Santa Clara 1728
Lisbon

Housed in an 18th-century pile on one of Lisbon's most romantic squares, Santa Clara 1728 is the fourth design-led property from hotelier João Rodrigues. Perched on a hill overlooking the Pantheon and the Tagus river, the hotel was designed by Lisbon-based architect Manuel Aires Mateus, whose clean, modern interiors are a refreshing contrast to the building's ancient walls. Worn limestone stairs lead to the six suites, where coarse linens, pale woods and furnishings by Antonio Citterio come together in a neutral palette boosted by a graceful duck-egg blue. Downstairs, unwind with a Portuguese wine and dishes made from fresh market produce. Mary Lussiana Campo de Santa Clara 128, tel: 351.934 418 316, santaclaral1728.com.
